

TRAIL WORK DAY AT THE HAZEL OUTDOOR DISCOVERY CENTER SATURDAY, MARCH 31 NOON TO 3:30 PM

Local scouts and volunteers from the MD Conservation Corps have been busy adding miles of new nature trails to the 500+ acre Hazel Outdoor Discovery Center (HODC) in Eden, MD. We need your help on March 31 to to help rake the trails and clean up garbage piles from an old farm dump.

Volunteers will be provided with lunch at noon (hot dogs, veggie burgers & more), and will be invited to stay for a campfire afterwards. Volunteers are also welcome to camp at the HODC after the campfire. Please bring your own rake, pruners, loppers, and work gloves. To learn more about the HODC, please visit www.hazeloutdoors.org.

For more information or to RSVP, please contact Jim Rapp at 443-614-0261 or dlitedirector@comcast.net